Welcome to the November issue the Radio HF Newsletter. We're back to standard time. It's depressing! It's dark in the morning; dark earlier in the afternoon and I saw our first snowflakes here in the Montreal region early this afternoon! I'm not ready for what's coming but that's part of life living here in Canada. What it also means though is that the holiday season is just over a month away. Our U.S. friends kick everything off in a few weeks. We wish all our American friends a very Happy Thanksgiving. Also, to all of those who have served their countries, or have family members who have or are now serving, we remember them all on November 11, Veterans/Remembrance Day and we thank you for your service.

There is a big outer space event taking place in a few days, on November 12th to be precise. The Rosetta spacecraft will be launching a probe to attempt to land on a passing comet. Full details of this event are in this month's General Zone. Look for the Rosetta Mission webpage details.

Our Monthly Special Zone for November features web pages on Veterans Day/Remembrance Day, U.S. Thanksgiving, the Great American Smoke-Out and several United Nations special days.

This month's virtual voyage around the world, in the "Where in the World Zone", takes us to the South Pacific Ocean to the island nation of Papua New Guinea, a most unique country. Officially the Independent State of Papua New Guinea, it is an Oceanian country that occupies the eastern half of the island of New Guinea and its offshore islands in Melanesia, a region of the south-western Pacific Ocean north of Australia. Its capital, located along its south-eastern coast, is Port Moresby. The western half of New Guinea forms the Indonesian provinces of Papua and West Papua. Papua New Guinea is one of the most culturally diverse countries in the world. 848 languages are listed for the country, of which 12 have no known living speakers.

Sadly it has happened this month. I am the sole contributor to this month's Newsletter. As we head into the long winter months, if you're spending more time at your computer, and less time outside, please take a few minutes and send along the links to some of your favourite web pages. It gets more and more difficult and time consuming for me to put this Newsletter together each month without your input and assistance. Let's get on to this month's links.

Repeater operation, as it grew through the 1970 to today, has revolutionized amateur radio. The recent marketing of relatively low cost FM Handi-Talkies has brought about a renaissance if VHF/UHF repeater operation. D-Star, DMR, IRLP and Echolink systems have brought about a whole new world of operating activity for the modern ham. If you have an older version of the ARRL Repeater Directory and can assure you, categorically, that this Repeater Renaissance has more than likely rendered it obsolete. This problem is only further compounded if you travel any distance from your “home” repeater systems. For the last few years, the Repeater Directory has been made available in both Desktop and Pocket sized editions. I like to use the larger format desk edition for research and the smaller version goes into the glove box in my car for trips. This year, a value added feature is access to an Android Device Application. Installing this “App” gives you 12 months of additional access and features right on your phone or tablet. It is my understanding an Apple App version is also on the way. The ARRL Repeater Directory is an essential tool for any ham, whether at home or on the road.

This publication is available from ARRL or from your favourite radio and communications publications retailer, including Radio HF (ed.)

We love music, and we want to express that love, share that love, and communicate that love in whatever way we can – through words, through visuals, through informed discussion and argument, through passion. Music is our lifeblood: it makes us want to fuck the world and give birth to a new breed. We are Collapse Board. We don’t believe we should be constrained by any artificial restrictions: if we want to express ourselves, we should be able to express ourselves. There is no right or wrong approach to evaluate music, only boredom. We want to fill the roaring silence that otherwise threatens to topple life.

MAPPING THE GULAG

http://www.gulagmaps.org/ http://www.gulagmaps.org/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

The initial aim in mapping the geographical character of the Russian penal estate was to illustrate the continuity from the gulag to the present day in the use of peripheral locations for punishment. Feedback we have had from people who have visited this site, have also made us realise that mapping the gulag has a role to play in remembering the gulag. The regional maps, in particular, locate places that have long since disappeared from site, as their foundations have been overgrown by forest. The visualisation of camp subdivisions that we have plotted for a single year is an appalling reminder of just how the gulag shaped the landscape in the Soviet Union's peripheries and of the countless number of people who moved through them.

World's Best Hobby
By Dave Bell, W6AQ
World's Best Hobby is an unusual title for a memoir, which is exactly what this book is. It's my life in the fascinating hobby of Amateur Radio. Much of my professional life is spent producing documentary and reality programs for television (including more than a few about Ham Radio) where I learned that the purpose of a title is to attract an audience and if it was also true all the better. The challenge with documentary films is to make them entertaining first and foremost, and informational if possible. I've tried very hard to make this book entertaining, and from feedback I've gotten (from Hams and wannabee Hams who found it posted online as I was writing it) I've succeeded, at least to some extent. I tried to make the book fun because Ham Radio is fun. And Ham Radio has more facets than a cheap diamond, as you'll discover as you dig into World's Best Hobby. Enjoy! 73, Dave Bell, W6AQ
